

September 2017

CIBOULETTE goes back to school !

CIBOULETTE and MINT are so happy to go back to school with their french friends.

The kids taught them a poetry that talks about summer holidays. Oceana showed them how to say it with sign language.

In the Martine's class, the students discovered with pleasure all the memories that Ciboulette brought from her travels.

They admired all the little notebooks and drawings of their European friends.

